

CONGRATULATIONS!

REQUIREMENTS FOR LEGAL MARRIAGE FOR BRIDE & GROOM (Applicable for civil marriage only)

1. Certified copy of Birth certificate legalized *It must be authenticated with the "Apostille stamp".

CANADA: The legalization done at the Mexican Consulate. This is not the Apostille (USA), mainly they'll affix a document to the certified copy and that will go with a seal stamp by the Mexican consulate.

Divorce cases: Certified copy of the divorce decree legalized *It must be authenticated with the "Apostille stamp".

2. The translation into Spanish of the Divorce papers (In case of divorce clients) and birth certificates, done by an Proficient translator authorized by the H. Superior Justice Court. Translations into Spanish can be done in Cancun, that take one day and the cost is approximately $300 pesos per translated page.

3. Tourist card (Migratory form for foreign visitors issued upon entering the country)

4. Valid passports.

5. Pre-nuptial blood test (screened for HIV, contagious diseases and relevant blood group).

6. Four witnesses with their passports and tourist cards.

Clients must arrive 3 business days (from Monday to Friday) before the wedding ceremony to go through all the paper work formalities.

Witnesses and Bride & Groom documentation must be given together the day of the meeting with the wedding coordinator.

IMPORTANT: You will have to bring originals of all required documents (will be given back). Certified copies will not be given back by the legal offices.

As we can not be held responsible for incorrect documentation being taken to Mexico, please ensure all necessary documents listed above are hand carried with you.

For more information about legalization of documents please check the following web page:
http://travel.state.gov/about/hague_foreign_docs.html

We will gladly assist you in anything you may need for this special event and we will appreciate you inform us in advance about your decision.

Sincerely,
Octavio Montes
Photography
Cancún Q.Roo México
www.OctavioMontes.com